II SAMUEL 13

AND it came to pass after this, that Ab'-sa-lom the son of David had a fair sister, whose name was Tamar; and Amnon the son of David loved her.

2 And Amnon was so vexed, that he fell sick for his sister Tamar; for she was a virgin; and Amnon thought it hard for him to do any thing to her.

3 But Amnon had a friend, whose name was Jonadab, the son of Shim'
6-ah David's brother: and Jonadab was a very subtil man.

4 And he said unto him, Why art thou, being the king's son, lean from day to day? wilt thou not tell me? And Amnon said unto him, I love Tamar, my brother Ab'-saidom's sister.

5 And Jonadab said unto him, Lay thee down on thy bed, and make thyself sick: and when thy father cometh to see thee, say unto him, I pray thee, let my sister Tamar come, and give me meat, and dress the meat in my sight, that I may see it, and eat it at her hand.

6 ¶ So Amnon lay down, and made himself sick: and when the king was come to see him, Amnon said unto the king, I pray thee, let Tamar my sister come, and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat at her hand.

7 Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, Go now to thy brother Amnon's house, and dress him meat.

8 So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was laid down. And she took flour, and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and did bake the cakes.

9 And she took a pan, and poured them out before him; but he refused to eat. And Amnon said, Have out all men from me. And they went out every man from him.

10 And Amnon said unto Tamar, Bring the meat into the chamber, that I may eat of thine hand. And Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother.

11 And when she had brought them unto him to eat, he took hold of her, and said unto her, Come lie of her, and said unto her, Come lie with me, my sister.

12 And she answered him, Nay, my brother, do not force me; for no such thing ought to be done in Israel: do not thou this folly.

13 And I, whither shall I cause my shame to go? and as for thee, thou shalt be as one of the fools in Israel. Now therefore, I pray thee, speak unto the king; for he will not withhold me from thee.

14 Howbeit he would not hearken

14 Howbeit he would not hearken unto her voice: but, being stronger than she, forced her, and lay with than she, forced her, and lay with her.

15 ¶ Then Amnon hated her exceedingly; so that the hatred wherewith he hated her was greater than the love wherewith he had loved her. And Amnon said unto her, Arise, be gone.

16 And she said unto him, There is no cause: this evil in sending me away is greater than the other that thou didst unto me. But he would not hearken unto her.

17 Then he called his servant that ministered unto him, and said, Put now this woman out from me, and bolt the door after her.

18 And she had a garment of divers colours upon her: for with such robes were the king's daughters that were virgins apparelled. Then his servant brought her out, and bolted the door after her.

19 ¶ And Tamar put ashes on her head, and rent her garment of divers colours that was on her, and laid her hand on her head, and went on crying.

20 And Ab'-sa-lom her brother said unto her, Hath Amnon thy brother been with thee? but hold now thy peace, my sister: he is thy brother; regard not this thing. So Tamar remained desolate in her brother Absalom's house.

21 ¶ But when king David heard of all these things, he was very wroth.

22 And Ab'-sa-lom spake unto his brother Amnon neither good nor bad; for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar.

Tamar.

23 ¶ And it came to pass after two full years, that Åb'-så-lomhad sheep-shearers in Bā'-āl-hazor, which is beside Ē'-phrā-im; and Absalom invited all the king's sons.

24 And Åb'-sa-lom came to the king, and said, Behold now, thy servant hath sheepshearers; let the king, I beseech thee, and his servants go with thy servant.

25 And the king said to Ab'-să-lom, Nay, my son, let us not all now go, lest we be chargeable unto thee. And he pressed him: howbeit he would not go, but blessed him.

26 Then said Ab'-să-lom, If not, I pray thee, let my brother Amnon go with us. And the king said unto him, Why should he go with thee?

unto him, Why should he go with thee?

27 But Åb'-sä-lom pressed him, that he let Ammon and all the king's sons go with him.

28 ¶ Now Åb'-sä-lom had commanded his servants, saying, Mark ye now when Ammon's heart is merry with wine, and when I say unto you, Smite Ammon; then kill him, fear not: have not I commanded you? be courageous, and be valiant.

29 And the servants of Åb'-sä-lom did unto Ammon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons arose, and every man gat him up upon his mule, and fled.

30 ¶ And it came to pass, while they were in the way, that tidings came to David, saying, Åb'-sä-lom hath slain all the king's sons, and there is not one of them left.

31 Then the king arose, and tare his garments, and lay on the earth; and all his servants stood by with their clothes rent.

32 And Jonadab, the son of Shim'- and all his servants stood by with their clothes rent.

32 And Jonadab, the son of Shim'e-ah David's brother, answered and said. Let not my lord suppose that they have slain all the young men the king's sons; for Amnon only is dead; for by the appointment of Ab'-sa-lom this hath been determined from the day that he forced his sister Tamar.

his sister Tamar.

33 Now therefore let not my lord the king take the thing to his heart, to think that all the king's sons are dead: for Amnon only is dead.

34 But Ab'-sā-lom fled. And the young man that kept the watch lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came much people by the way of the hill side behind him.

35 And Jonadab said unto the king, Behold, the king's sons come: as thy servant said, so it is.

36 And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of speaking, that, behold, the king's sons came, and lifted up their voice and went and the king also and all his servants and the king also and all his servants

37 ¶ But Ab'-să-lom fied, and went to Tăl'-mâi, the son of Am'-mi-hūd, king of Geshur. And David mourned for his son every

38 So Ab'-sa-lom fled, and went to Geshur, and was there three years.

39 And the soul of king David longed to go forth unto Ab sa-lom: for he was comforted concerning Amnon, seeing he was dead.

II SAMUEL 14

NOW Joab the son of Zer-ū-i'-āh perceived that the king's heart was toward Ab'-sā-lom.

2 And Joab sent to Te-kō'-āh, and fetched thence a wise woman, and said unto her, I pray thee, feign thyself to be a mourner, and put on now mourning apparel, and anoint not thyself with oil, but be as a woman that had a long time mourned for the dead: for the dead:

3 And come to the king, and speak on this manner unto him. So Joab on this manner unto him. So Joab put the words in her mouth.

4 ¶ And when the woman of Těko'-ah spake to the king, she fell on her face to the ground, and did obeisance, and said, Help, O king.

5 And the king said unto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, I am indeed a widow woman, and mine husband is dead.

6 And thy handmaid had two sons, and they two strove together in the field, and there was none to part them, but the one smote the other, and slew him.

7 And, behold, the whole family is risen against thine handmaid, and they said, Deliver him that smote his brother, that we may kill him, for the life of his brother whom he slew; and we will destroy the heir also: and so they shall quench my coal which is left, and shall not leave to my husband neither name nor remainder upon the earth.

8 And the king said unto the woman. Go to thine house, and I will nor remainder upon the earth.

8 And the king said unto the woman, Go to thine house, and I will give charge concerning thee.

9 And the woman of Te-kō'-āh said unto the king, My lord, O king, the iniquity be on me, and on my father's house; and the king and his throne be guiltless.

10 And the king said, Whosoever saith aught unto thee, bring him to me, and he shall not touch thee any more.

11 Then said she, I pray thee, let the king remember the LORD thy God, that thou wouldest not suffer the revengers of blood to destroy any more, lest they destroy my son. And he said, As the LORD liveth, there shall not one hair of thy son fall to the earth.

fall to the earth.

12 Then the woman said, Let thine handmaid, I pray thee, speak one word unto my lord the king. And word unto my ford the king. And he said, Say on.

13 And the woman said, Wherefore then hast thou thought such a thing against the people of God? for the king doth speak this thing as one which is faulty, in that the king doth not fetch home again his banished.

as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again; neither doth God respect any person: yet doth he devise means, that his banished be not expelled from him.

15 Now therefore that I am come to speak of this thing unto my lord.

to speak of this thing unto my lord the king, it is because the people have made me afraid: and thy handmaid said, I will now speak unto the king; it may be that the king will perform the request of his hand-maid.

16 For the king will hear, to deliver his handmaid out of the hand of the man that would destroy me and my son together out of the inheritance of God.

II SAMUEL 14

17 Then thine handmaid said, The word of my lord the king shall now be comfortable: for as an angel of God, so is my lord the king to discern good and bad: therefore the LORD thy God will be with thee.

18 Then the king answered and said unto the woman, Hide not from me, I pray thee, the thing that I shall ask thee. And the woman said, Let my lord the king now speak.

19 And the king said, Is not the hand of Joab with thee in all this? And the woman answered and said, And the woman answered and said, As thy soul liveth, my lord the king, none can turn to the right hand or to the left from aught that my lord the king hath spoken: for thy servant Joab, he bade me, and he put all these words in the mouth of thine handmaid:

20 To fetch about this form of speech hath thy servant Joab done this thing: and my lord is wise, ac-cording to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know all things that are of God, to know all things that are in the earth.

21 ¶ And the king said unto Joab, Behold now, I have done this thing: go therefore, bring the young man Ab'sā-lom again.

22 And Joab fell to the ground on his face, and bowed himself, and thanked the king: and Joab said, To-day thy servant knoweth that I have found grace in thy sight my To-day thy servant knoweth that I have found grace in thy sight, my lord, O king, in that the king hath fulfilled the request of his servant.

23 So Joab arose and went to Geshur, and brought Absarlom to Jerusalem.

Jerusalem.

24 And the king said, Let him turn to his own house, and let him not see my face. So Ab'-sa-lom returned to his own house, and saw not the king's face.

25 ¶ But in all Israel there was none to be so much praised as Ab'-sa-lom for his beauty: from the sole of his foot even to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him.

26 And when he polled his head, (for it was at every year's end that he polled it: because the hair was heavy on him, therefore he polled it:) he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred she kels after the king's weight.

27 And unto Ab'-sa-lom there were born three sons, and one daughter, whose name was Tamarshe was a woman of a fair countenance.

28 ¶ So Ab'-să-lom dwelt two full years in Jerusalem, and saw not the vears in Jerusalem, and saw not the king's face.

29 Therefore Ab'-sa-lom sent for to have sent him to the king; but he would not come to him; and when he sent again the second time, he would not come.

30 Therefore he said unto his servants, See, Joab's field is near mine, and he hath barley there; go and set it on fire. And Ab'-sa-lom's servants set the field on fire.

31 Then Joab arose, and came to Ab'-sa-lom unto his house, and said unto him, Wherefore have thy servants set my field on fire?

32 And Ab'-sa-lom answered Joab, Behold, Il-sent unto thee, saving, Come hither, that I may send thee to the king, to say, Wherefore am I come from Geshur? It had been good for me to have been there still: good for me to have been there still; now therefore let me see the king; face; and if there be any iniquity in me, let him kill me.

33 So Joab came to the king, and told him; and when he had called for Ab'-sa-lom, he came to the king, and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king; and the king kissed Absalom.

II SAMUEL 15

AND it came to pass after this, that Ab'-sa-lom prepared him chariots and horses, and fifty men to run before him.

2 And Åb'-så-lom rose up early, and stood beside the way of the gate: and it was so, that when any man that had a controversy came to the king for judgment, then Absalom called unto him, and said. Of what city art thou? And he said, Thy servant is of one of the tribes of Israel

Thy servant is of one of the tribes of Israel.

3 And ab'-sa-lom said unto him, See, thy matters are good and right; but there is no man deputed of the king to hear thee.

4 Ab'-sa-lom said moreover, Oh that I were made judge in the land, that every man which hath any suit or cause might come unto me, and I would do him justice!

5 And it was so, that when any man came nigh to him to do him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and took him, and kissed him.

6 And on this manner did Ab'-sa-lom to all Israel that came to the king for judgment: so Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

7 And it came to pass after forty years, that Ab'-sa-lom said unto the king. I pray thee, let me go and pay my vow, which I have vowed unto the Lord, in Hebron.

8 For thy servant vowed a vow while I abode at Geshur in Syria, saying, If the Lord shall bring me again indeed to Jerusalem, then I will serve the Lord.

9 And the king said unto him, Go in peace. So he arose, and went to Hebron.

10 But Ab'-sa-lom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel.

Hebron.

10 ¶ But Åb'-sä-lem sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, As soon as ye hear the sound of the trumpet, then ye shall say, Absalom reigneth in Hebron.

11 And with Åb'-sä-lem went two hundred men out of Jerusalem, that were called; and they went in their simplicity, and they knew not any simplicity, and they knew not any thing.

12 And Ab'-sa-lom sent for A-hith'-ö-phel the Gi'-lō-nite, David's counsellor, from his city, even from Giloh, while he offered sacrifices. And the conspiracy was strong; for the people increased continually with Absalom.

13 ¶ And there came a messenger to David, saying, The hearts of the men of Israel are after Ab'-sa-lom.

14 And David said unto all his servants that were with him at Jerusalem, Arise, and let us flee; for we shall not else escape from Ab'-sa-lom: make speed to depart, lest he overtake us suddenly, and bring evil upon us, and smite the city with the edge of the sword.

15 And the king's servants said unto the king, Behold, thy servants are ready to do whatsoever my lord the king shall appoint.

16 And the king went forth, and all his bousehold after him. And are ready to do whatsoever my lord the king shall appoint.

16 And the king went forth, and all his household after him. And the king left ten women, which were concubines, to keep the house.

17 And the king went forth, and all the people after him, and tarried in a place that was far off.

18 And all his servants passed on beside him; and all the Cher'-ethites, and all the Pe'-ethites, and all the Gittites, six hundred men which came after him from Gath, passed on before the king.

19 ¶ Then said the king to it-tā'-ithe Gittite, Wherefore goest thou also with us? return to thy place, and abide with the king: for thou art a stranger, and also an exile.

20 Whereas thou camest but yesterday, should I this day make thee go up and down with us? seeing I go whither I may, return thou, and take back thy brethren: mercy and truth be with thee.

21 And it-tā'-i answered the king, and said, As the Lord liveth, and as my lord the king liveth, surely in what place my lord the king shall be, whether in death or life, even there also will thy servant be.

22 And David said to it-tā'-i, Go and pass over. And Ittai the Gittite passed over, and all his men, and all the little ones that were with him.

23 And all the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people passed over: the king also himself passed over the brook Kidron, and all the people passed over, toward the way of the wilderness.

24 ¶ And lo Zadok also, and all the Levites were with him, bearing the ark of the covenant of God; and they set down the ark of God; and A-bi'-ā-thār went up, until all the people had done passing out of the city.

25 And the king said unto Zadok, Carry back the ark of God into the

of the Lord, he will bring me again, and shew me both it, and his habita-

26 But if he thus say, I have no delight in thee; behold, here am I, let him do to me as seemeth good unto

27 The king said also unto Zadok the priest, Art not thou a seer? return into the city in peace, and your two sons with you, A-hi'-ma-az thy son, and Jonathan the son of A-bi'-

28 See, I will tarry in the plain of the wilderness, until there come word from you to certify me.

29 Zadok therefore and A-bi'-a-thär carried the ark of God again to large and they tarried there.

thär carried the ark of God again to Jerusalem: and they tarried there.

30 ¶ And David went up by the ascent of mount Olivet, and wept as he went up, and had his head covered, and he went barefoot: and all the people that was with him covered every man his head, and they went up, weeping as they went up, 31 ¶ And one told David, saying, 31 ¶ And one told David, saying, 3-hith ō-phèl is among the conspirators with Ab'-sa-lom. And David said, O Lord, I pray thee, turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness.

32 ¶ And it came to pass, that when David was come to the top of the mount, where he worshipped God, behold, Hū'-shāi the Ār'-chite came to meet him with his coat rent, and earth upon his head.

passest on with me, then thou shalt be a burden unto me:

34 But if thou return to the city, and say unto Ab'-sa-lom, I will be thy servant, O king; as I have been thy father's servant hitherto, so will I now also be thy servant: then mayest thou for me defeat the counsel of A-hith'-ö-phel.

35 And hast thou not there with thee Zadok and A-bi'-a-thar the priests? therefore it shall be, that

36 Behold, they have there with them their two sons, A-hi'-ma-az Zadok's son, and Jonathan A-bi'-a-thar's son; and by them ye shall send unto me every thing that ye

37 So Hū'-shai David's friend came into the city, and ab'-sa-lom came into Jerusalem.

II SAMUEL 16

AND when David was a little past the top of the hill, behold, Ziba the servant of Më-phib'-ö-shëth met him, with a couple of asses saddled, and upon them two hundred loaves of bread, and an hundred bunches of raisins, and an hundred for the server fruits, and a hottle of of summer fruits, and a bottle of

of stimmer fruits, and a bottle of wine.

2 And the king said unto Ziba. What meanest thou by these? And Ziba said, The asses be for the king's household to ride on; and the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat; and the wine, that such as be faint in the wilderness may drink.

3 And the king said, And where is thy master's son? And Ziba said unto the king, Behold, he abideth at Jerusalem; for he said, To-day shall the house of Israel restore me the kingdom of my father.

4 Then said the king to Ziba, Behold, thine are all that pertained unto Mě-phib'-ö-shěth. And Ziba said, I humbly beseech thee that I may find grace in thy sight, my lord, O king.

may find grace in thy sight, my lord, O king.

5 ¶ And when king David came to Bā-hū'-rīm, behold, thence came out a man of the family of the house of Saul, whose name was Shim'-ĕ-ī, the son of Gera: he came forth, and cursed still as he came.

6 And he cast stones at David, and at all the servants of king David: and all the people and all the mighty men were on his right hand and on his left.

7 And thus said Shim'-ĕ-i when he cursed, Come out, come out, thou bloody man, and thou man of Bē'-

8 The Lord hath returned upon thee all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose stead thou hast reigned; and the Lord hath delivered the kingdom into the hand of reighed; and the LORD hath derivered the kingdom into the hand of Ab'-sa-lom thy son: and, behold, thou art taken in thy mischief, because thou art a bloody man.

9 ¶ Then said Ab'-i-shaî the son of Zer-ū-i'-ăh unto the king, Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? let me go over, I pray thee, and take off his head.

10 And the king said, What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zer-ū-i'-āh? so let him curse, because the LORD hath said unto him, Curse David. Who shall then say, Wherefore hast thou done so?

11 And David said to Ab'-i-shaî, and to all his servants, Behold, my son, which came forth of my bowels, seeketh my life: how much more now may this Benjamite do it? let him alone, and let him curse; for the LORD hath bidden him.

12 It may be that the LORD will look on mine affliction, and that the LORD will requite me good for his cursing this day.

13 And as David and his men.

LORD will requite me good for his cursing this day.

13 And as David and his men went by the way, Shim'-ë-i went along on the hill's side over against him, and cursed as he went, and threw stones at him, and cast dust.

14 And the king, and all the people that were with him, came weary, and refreshed themselves there.

15 ¶ And åb'-så-lom, and all the people the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem, and å-hith'-ö-phèl with him.

16 And it came to pass, when Hū'-shaì the Är'-chite, David's friend, was come unto Äb'-sā-lom, that Hushai said unto Absalom, God save the king, God save the king.

17 And Äb'-sā-lom said to Hū'-shaì, Is this thy kindness to thy friend why wentest thou not with thy friend?

18 And Hū'-shai said unto ab'-sa-lom, Nay; but whom the LORD, and this people, and all the men of Is-rael, choose, his will I be, and with him will I abide.

19 And again, whom should I serve? should I not serve in the presence of his son? as I have served in thy father's presence, so will I be in thy presence.

20 ¶ Then said Åb'-så-lora to Åhith'-ö-phèl, Give counsel among you what we shall do.

21 And Å-hith'-ö-phèl said unto Åb'-så-lom, Go in unto thy father's

keep the house; and all Israel shall hear that thou art abhorred of thy father; then shall the hands of all that are with thee be strong.

22 So they spread Ab sa lom a tent upon the top of the house; and Absalom went in unto his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel.

23 And the counsel of Ahith-ophel, which he counsel of Ahith-ophel, which he counselled in those days, was as if a man had inquired at the oracle of God; so was all the counsel of Ahithophel both with David and with Ab sa lom.

MOREOVER ă-hith'-ŏ-phěl said unto h' sa lom, Let me now choose out twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue after David this night:

2 And I will come upon him while he is weary and weak handed, and will make him afraid: and all the people that are with him shall flee; and I will smite the king only:

3 And I will smite the king only:

3 And I will bring back all the people unto thee; the man whom thou seekest is as if all returned: so all the people shall be in peace.

4 And the saying pleased Ab'-sā-lom well, and all the elders of Israel.

5 Then said Ab'-sā-lom, Call now Hū'-shai the Ar'-chite also, and let us hear likewise what he saith.

6 And when Hū'-shai was come to Ab'-sā-lom, Absalom spāke unto him, saying, A-hith'-ŏ-phēl hath spoken after this manner; shall we de after his saying? if not; speak thou.

7 And Hū'-shai said unto Ab'-sā-

7 And Hū'-shaî said unto ab'-sa-lom, The counsel that a-hith'-o-phel hath given is not good at this

9 Behold, he is hid now in some pit, or in some other place: and it will come to pass, when some of them be overthrown at the first, that whosoever heareth it will say, There is a slaughter among the people that follow ab's low.

11 Therefore I counsel that all Israel be generally gathered unto thee, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, as the sand that is by the sea for multitude; and thet thou go to battle in thing own person.

13 Moreover, if he be gotten into a city, then shall all Israel bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river, until there be not one small stone found there.

14 And Ab'sa-lom and all the men of Israel said. The counsel of Hū'-shai the Ar'-chite is better than the counsel of A-hith'-o-phel. For the Lord had appointed to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that the Lord might bring evil upon Absalom.

15 ¶ Then said Hū'-shai unto Zadok and to Ă-bi'-ă-thär the priests, Thus and thus did Ă-hith'-ö-phel counsel àb'-să-lom and the elders of Israel; and thus and thus have I counselled.

16 Now therefore send quickly, and tell David, saying, Lodge not this night in the plains of the wilderness, but speedily pass over; lest the king be swallowed up, and all the people that are with him.

17 Now Jonathan and A-hi'-mă-ăz stayed by En-rō'-gēl; for they might not be seen to come into the city: and a wench went and told them; and they went and told king David.

18 Nevertheless a lad saw them, and told he'-să-lom: but they went both of them away quickly, and came to a man's house in Bă-hū'-rim, which had a well in his court; whither they went down.

19 And the woman took and spread a covering over the well's mouth, and spread ground corn thereon; and the thing was not known.

20 And when ab sa lem's servants came to the woman to the house, they said, Where is a hi'-ma aid unto them, They be gone over the brook of water. And when they had sought and could not find them, they returned to Jeru-

21 And it came to pass, after they were departed, that they came up out of the well, and went and told king David, and said unto Da.id, Arise, and pass quickly over the water: for thus hath A-hith o-phel counselled against you.

22 Then David arose, and all the people that were with him, and they passed over Jordan: by the morning light there lacked not one of them that was not gone over Jordan.

23 And when A-hith o-phel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his ass, and arose, and gat him home to his house, to his city, and put his household in order, and hanged himself, and died, and was buried in the sepulchre of his father.

24 Then David came to Mā-hanā'-im. And Ab'-sā-lom passed over Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him.

25 ¶ And Ab'sa-lom made A-ma'sa captain of the host instead of Joab: which Amasa was a man's son, whose name was ith'-rā an Israel'israel' son, whose name was ith'-rā an Israelite, that went in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister to Zĕr-ū-i'-āh Joab's mother.

26 So Israeland āb'-sā-lom pitched in the land of Gil'-ē-ād.

27 ¶ And it came to pass, when David was come to Mā-hā-nā'-im, that Shobi the son of Nahash of Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and Mā'-chir the son of Ām'-mi-ĕl of Lō'-dĕ-bār, and Bār-zil-lā'-ī the Gil'-ē-ād-ite of Rō'-gĕ-lim,

28 Brought beds, and basins, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and flour, and parched corn, and beans, and lentils, and parched pulse, pulse, 29 And honey, and butter, and sheep, and cheese of kine, for David, and for the people that were with him, to eat: for they said, The people is hungry, and weary, and thirsty, in the wilderness.

AND David numbered the people that were with him, and set captains of thousands and captains of

2 And David sent forth a third part of the people under the hand of Joab, and a third part under the hand of Xb'-i-shal the son of Zer-ū-

i'-ah, Joab's brother, and a third part under the hand of it-ta'-i the Gittite. And the king said unto the people, I will surely go forth with you myself also.

3 But the people answered, Thou shalt not go forth: for if we flee away, they will not care for us; neither if half of us die, will they care for us: but now thou art worth ten thousand of us: therefore now it is better that thou succour us out of better that thou succour us out of better that thou succour us out of the city.

4 And the king said unto them, What seemeth you best I will do. And the king stood by the gate side, and all the people came out by hundreds and by thousands.

5 And the king commanded Joab and Ab'-i-shaî and it-tā'-i, saying, Deal gently for my sake with the young man, even with Ab'-sā-lom. And all the people heard when the king gave all the captains charge concerning Absalom.

6 ¶ So the people went out into the field against Israel: and the battle was in the wood of Ē'-phrā-im;

7 Where the people of Israel were slain before the servants of David, and there was there a great slaughter that day of twenty thousand men.

8 For the battle was there scattered over the face of all the country; and the wood devoured more people that day than the sword devoured.

people that day than the sword devoured.

9 ¶ And Åb'-så-lom met the servants of David. And Absalom rode upon a mule, and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great oak, and his head caught hold of the oak, and he was taken up between the heaven and the earth; and the mule that was under him went away.

10 And a certain man saw it, and told Joab, and said, Behold, I saw Åb'-så-lom hanged in an oak.

11 And Joab said unto the man that told him, And, behold, thou sawest him, and why didst thou not smite him there to the ground? And sawest him, and why didst thou not smite him there to the ground? And I would have given thee ten shē'-kěls of silver, and a girdle.

12 And the man said unto Joab, Though I should receive a thousand shē'-kěls of silver in mine hand, yet would I not put forth mine hand against the king's son: for in our hearing the king charged thee and ab'-i-shāl and It-tā'-ī, saying, Beware that none touch the young man ware that none touch the young man Ab'-sa-lom.

13 Otherwise I should have wrought falsehood against mine own life: for there is no matter hid from the king, and thou thyself wouldest have set thyself against me.

14 Then said Joab, I may not tarry thus with thee. And he took three darts in his hand, and thrust them through the heart of his alon, while he was yet alive in the midst of the oak.

15 And ten young men that bare

15 And ten young men that bare Joab's armour compassed about and smote Ab's a lom, and slew him.

16 And Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel: for Joab held back the people.

17 And they took Ab's a lom, and cast him into a great pit in the wood, and laid a very great heap of stones upon him: and all Israel fled every one to his tent.

18 ¶ Now åb'-så-lom in his lifetime had taken and reared up for himself a pillar, which is in the king's dale; for he said, I have no son to keep my name in remembrance; and he called the pillar after his own name; and it is called unto this day, Absalom's place.

19 ¶ Then said Ă-hi'-mă-ăz the son of Zadok, Let me now run, and bear the king tidings, how that the Lord hath avenged him of his enemies.

20 And Joab said unto him, Thou shalt not bear tidings this day, but thou shalt bear tidings another day; but this day thou shalt bear no tidready?

23 But howsoever, said he, let me run. And he said unto him, Run. Then Ä-hi'-mă-ăz ran by the way of the plain, and overran Cū'-shi.

24 And David sat between the two gates: and the watchman went up to the roof over the gate unto the wall, and lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold a man running alone.
